

Eagle Eye

Gallows Humor

In Eagle Wing?

by Tootsey Jackson

The scene was a cell in the death house. The prisoner had two hours before he would be hung. To make these last few moments pleasurable, the warden decided to give the condemned man a gift- a prostitute. Can he think about sex at a time of death? Well that's what the script is all about.

The play, "Gallows Humor", written by Jack Richardson, was presented by the Reader's Theatre under the direction of Dr. Robert Kidder.

Held in the Eagle Wing, the setting consisted of only three stools and a few lights. The actors used no costumes but a great deal of imagination.

Conversation between the actors dealt mainly with the prostitute, Nancy Wiener, trying to convince the convict, Joe Nicely, that he should accept the final proposal. The convict, being a well-bred society man, offered a million reasons why he shouldn't.

The warden, Ben Aptaker, has a hand in it too, as it is his job to see that the prostitute keeps the convict's mind off of dying.

Finally, after all the talking and convincing, the play ends with the convict giving in.

Globetrotter Trots To Lock Haven

by Mike Crone

"I can guarantee you, you're going to see a terrific show!" These words were spoken by "Tex" Harrison a twenty year member of the Harlem Globetrotters, who was on the LHSC campus Wednesday morning. "Tex" was here to promote the Globetrotters appearance in Thomas Field House on Sunday, Oct. 21, 1973, bringing their basketball magic to Lock Haven.

Opening the show, of course, will be the famous "Globetrotter Circle," which will be performed to the strains of the Trotters theme song, "Sweet Georgia Brown." Tex has promised that there will be a lot of "Now you see it, now you don't!" The Globbies also bring their own halftime entertainment with them. During the halftime intermission, the crowd will see before their very eyes a juggler, acrobats, and a high wire balancing act.

A few of the Trotter stars who will perform are: Marcus Haynes, who in the words of Tex Harrison, "is the world's greatest dribbler. Marcus is between 47 and 57 years old and can still really move that ball. He is a show in himself." Speaking of shows, Robert "Showboat" Hall will also be appearing along with a couple of the Sat. morning cartoon characters "Geese" Ausbie, and Pablo Robertson, a fine dribbler in his own right.

The foe for Sunday's game will be the New York Nationals. The Nationals are a team of Professionals, and contrary to popular belief, they do not come on to the court to be the "fools" nor do they come on the court to lose. "When we take the floor," says Tex, "We never start our antics until we have control of the game. Our first objective is to win the game, our second is to please the crowd." To back up this statement, Tex gave the Globetrotters first loss in 7 years as an example: "We got careless with the Nationals the year before last, and they beat us by one point."

Summing up the Globetrotters show, Tex says, "Not only is it world renowned, but we entertain as well as exhibit athletic skill, and of all the shows left in this country - we are one of the few that had remained G-rated. If we are well recieved and know we have made a few people happy, that's all the payment we need."

Lock Haven: Here Here Comes 'Philly'

by Jo Ann

"The play has taken shape and is ready for the audience," said Dr. Denys Gary, director of "Philadelphia, Here I Come." The play will be staged Oct. 15, 16, and 17, at 8:00 in Price Auditorium.

The play tells the story of a young Irish boy, Gareth O'Donnell, who flees to the United States to escape his problems. Gareth is shown both publicly and privately with roles played by Charles Charette and Brian Stoppe respectively.

Dr. Gary said that costumes are very important because they emphasize the character. Miss Felice Proctor, a professor at Lock Haven designed the costumes, and the committee started making them three weeks ago. The costumes are made to represent lower middle class people.

John Gordon, also an instructor at Lock Haven, designed the set which is more suggestive than realistic. The crew has worked many hours on the set.

Dr. Gary feels the cast has developed great enthusiasm for the play. He said that the range of experience among the cast is very wide. There are students who have never performed on stage before this play, and one cast member has a degree in theater. He continued to say, "The play has been done well with certain parts of the play done extremely well. They add great effect to the production." The cast has overcome many of the problems with which they were first faced, and certain precautions have been taken to ease problems that might occur in the final week of practice. For instance, props have been used in many of the rehearsals so the members of the cast could become acquainted with them.

Other cast members are: Gareth's father, Mortachi Lipshutz; Kathy, Gareth's love, Heloyne MacArthur;

Midge, the housekeeper, Deb Klens; Gareth's aunt and uncle, Cindy Probst and Gary Mazzu. The role of the school teacher is played by Stephen Culp, Ben Aptaker is Kathy's father, Bernie Gillot plays the parish priest, Gary Robinson, Kim Coon and Jim Shannan are seen as friends of Gareth and Dan Keefer plays Benn Burton, a friend to Gareth's aunt and uncle.

Dr. Gary stated, "It's the kind of play that both the college and community can enjoy. It has its light moments, but it is basically a serious play, a series of little worlds that never really come together."

Jan.-Aug. Graduation Now History

January and August commencements are now a part of Lock Haven history. In the future commencement ceremonies will be in May.

This news from the Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. George Robinson, confirms rumors that have been circulating for some time.

Although there will be no commencement in January or August, graduates will receive graduate status at the end of the semester in which they complete their requirements. The diplomas will be conferred in absentia and be distributed directly or mailed to the students.

Why the change? Calendar revision. Because the semester ends just before Christmas, there is no ideal time for a formal ceremony. Scheduling a day or two before or sometime after Christmas would impose hardships or inconvenience to students and teachers.

Last August, many graduates requested absentia degrees because they wanted a rest away from school before plunging into jobs.

All graduates will be invited to participate in the May commencement following the completion of required courses. The Academic Affairs Office stresses that absentia degrees are just as valid as degrees received at a formal ceremony.

12:30 FIRE DRILLS !!

Booters Boot Grove City, Meet Toughest Competition Sat.

In a soccer match a team usually plays one opponent at a time. This wasn't the case Wednesday as the Eagle Booters defeated an aggressive Grove City eleven plus the 2 officiating referees in a 4-2 Eagle victory.

The officials were sub-standard and were more concerned throughout the game with telling the Eagles how to play than in "refing" the game.

A classic example of the officiating ineptness occurred on the first Grove City score. Not one, not two, but three Wolverine players were offsides when the goal was tallied-with the referee failing to call the penalty. All things considered the referees did seem to be prejudiced toward the home team.

Despite the Wolverines' 6-4-2 defense, 10 players and 2 referees, Mike Seigfried scored the games first goal at 16:16 of the first period. A four yard head shot from the right side from Al Rice's assist gave the Eagles a 1-0 lead.

They upped their lead to 2-0 as Bob Weaver assisted Dave Chambers' 15 yard left-footed kick from the left side at 25:04 of the first half.

Grove City came right back with a shot from 15 yards, scoring their "offsides" goal at 30:30 of the first period by Gary Eising, which narrowed the gap to 2-1.

With just 2 seconds remaining in the half, Dan Smyers scored for Grove City from the left side, 3 yards out, and the half ended in a 2-2 deadlock.

This was the first time that anyone had scored on the Eagles in the first half so far this season.

The Eagles who might have taken Grove City too lightly from the start and who were looking ahead to East Stroudsburg found out that the Wolverines were for real.

The Eagles came out burning in the second half and dominated most of the second period. They scored 21:52 into the second half when Don Copeland scored on a 15 yard left-footed kick from the left side. This gave the Eagles a lead, 3-2, which they never relinquished.

Less than four minutes later Bob Wright scored on a beautiful shot from 4 yards out on Darrell "The Mole" Nagle's corner kick. The Eagles now led 4-2 with neither team able to score again in the second half. Lock Haven fired 28 shots at the Wolverine goal while G.C.C. retaliated with 18.

COACHES' CORNER

"I was pleased with the way we kept our poise in the second half," stated LHS Coach Karl Herrmann. "We came back and played the way we are capable of playing.

"I think we were a little complacent going into the game. We were looking ahead to the East Stroudsburg game this Saturday and weren't concentrating on the task at hand.

"No team plays well every game," Herrmann continued. We played what some teams might call a good game, but the team and I feel that we played a mediocre first half as far as our standards are concerned."

Assistant Coach Mike Parker stated that in his opinion, "We've not been working as a team but as individuals in some spots. These are the places that we have been having the problems."

"Grove City was extremely aggressive but when the chips were down we rose to the occasion. This," added Herrmann, "is definitely a sign of class.

"Everyone is up for us because of our record and reputation. This is a great compliment if a team does 'get up' for a match with us."

In commenting on Wednesday's game Herrmann remarked, "Both Coach Parker and myself were pleased with Bob Wright's distribution of the ball to the front line today. Not only has he the good physical ability to play the game, but he thinks a good game, too. He's one of our top men when the going gets tough. Lenny Long also played well today-perhaps the best game he's had all season."

Coach Herrmann also praised Nottingham exchange student Elwin Jones. "Elwin never played center forward before today's game. Although he didn't score he injected life into the front line with his passing and continuous hustle."

"Don Copeland got the big play for us today," Herrmann stated. "When the score was tied and we needed a score he did the job."

"We are still looking for two good halves together," Herrmann concluded. "We had a mediocre first half today but then came back with a good second period."

The Eagles will definitely need two strong periods this Saturday when they host East Stroudsburg at 2:00 PM on McCollum field.

Since the series began in 1939 East Stroudsburg holds a 14-8-5 record over the Eagles. Last year the Eagles lost to East Stroudsburg in a regular contest 1-0 and 4-0 in the Penna. Conference Championships.

Another Homecoming Game... Eagles Meet Raiders

The Lock Haven State football team will play the second of three straight Homecoming Day games this weekend.

The Bald Eagle gridders of Coach Bob Weller travel to Shippensburg State for a 2 p.m. kickoff this Saturday. It is the first trip to the Red Raiders new stadium. Both Lock Haven and Shippensburg will enter the contest with identical 1-3 records.

The Red Raiders topped Brockport 25-7 and lost to Bloomsburg State, 19-9, Kutztown, 31-10 and last Saturday dropped a 40-7 contest to powerful Slippery Rock State.

Lock Haven's victory came over California State, 14-13, and Clarion State, 56-13, before 6,000 Homecoming Day fans at Clarion.

There will be a meeting of the Computer Science Club on Monday, Oct. 15, 1975 at 7:00 p.m. in Raub 407. Newcomers welcome to attend.

The price for Faculty and Staff will be $1.00 for each injection.

Nominations for the 1974 S.C.C. Executive Committee should be turned in to the Senate Office or S.C.C. Executive Office by Weds., Oct. 17. Any additional information may be obtained at either of these offices.

The game Saturday will mark the 30th contest between the conference West Division rivals with Shippensburg holding a 15-12-2 edge.

Lock Haven's fine sophomore quarterback Dave Bower of Montoursville, was ranked as the NCAA (Division III) number three passer last week. Bower has completed 43 passes of 80 attempts for 418 yards and 6 touchdowns.

His favorite target, wide receiver Lou Savani has snagged 18 passes for 214 yards and two touchdowns.

Fullback Bob Kline is the Eagles top rusher with 189 yards and a 4.2 average.

On Oct. 20 Lock Haven will return home for a big Homecoming Day contest with Pennsylvania Conference Western Division rival Edinboro State College.

Eagles 2-2 For The Week

by Lloyd Peters

The Lock Haven State College Cross-Country Team won two meets and lost two this past week in contests at Mansfield State and Susquehanna University.

On Saturday the Bald Eagles were defeated by Mansfield State, 23-24, and a powerful freshman-dominated Edinboro State team, 18-45.

LHS senior Mike Gaige had to settle for a third in the Mansfield meet as he developed a severe stitch at the three mile mark on the Mounties hilly 5.0 mile course. Bill Landis was the only other Bald Eagle to get in the top ten placing ninth.

On Wednesday LHS defeated Susquehanna University, 24-32, on an exceptionally fast Susquehanna course.

Mike Gaige shattered the old course record set by Jeff Yoder of Susq. by 1:13. His time of 24:23 on the 4.9 mile course was a tremendous effort. "Mike was just fantastic," commented LHS coach Jim Dolan.

Dolan also praised the running of sophomore Dennis Harman who placed ninth in 26:35.

The Susquehanna meet represented the best team grouping among the Bald Eagles this season. The team is making continuous improvement despite their 3-7 record.

This Saturday the harrier squad will travel to Bing-Hamton and Oneate which are State Universities of NY (SUNY).
