

Opening December 27 for a two week stay will be recording artist Townes Van Zandt. A native of Austin, Texas, Van Zandt has recorded six or seven albums and plays an amazing variety of string instruments. Returning to the local watering spot with Van Zandt will be guitarist Mickey White. White, who plays a fine slide guitar, has appeared at the Moose with Mickey Clark and for one solo engagement.