Linda Ronstadt headlines Aqua Fest

By Michael VanDornage

Austin American-Statesman

A weekend of music and fun - that's Linda Ronstadt's version of the Sixth Street free concert in Austin. And she's not alone.

So the most celebrated of the Austin Arts Festival of the Visual and Performing Arts is ready to rock on Saturday and Sunday.

And Ronstadt will headline the Aqua Fest in the main stage at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

She and her band will be joined by a host of other stars, including Al Green, Charles Earland, Lou Rawls, Carole King and Bette Midler.

The festival, held at the University of Texas, runs Friday through Sunday.

But Ronstadt is just one of the attractions.

The festival features a wide range of music, including rock, country, folk, blues, jazz and popular music.

And there are also visual arts exhibits, including paintings, sculpture and photography.

Mitsubishi takes mystery out of VCRs

By Stephen Schaefer

News Service

Mitsubishi has finally released a 40-page manual that explains how to use its line of VCRs.

The manual, which was compiled by the company's engineers, explains how to use the different functions of the VCR, including recording, editing and playback.

The manual also includes troubleshooting tips and a list of common problems that can occur with the VCR.

The manual is available for download from the company's website, which is located at http://www.mitsubishi.com.

The manual is available in both English and Spanish.
