Looking for rockers

hadn't met him before.

● Coincidentally, ex-Dylan diva Joan Baez was spotted shopping at Tower Records. She's working on a comeback album in Music City.

● As nutty as this sounds, MCA Records has signed Spinal Tap. Yes, that Spinal Tap, stars of that wonderfully twisted 1983 rock movie This Is Spinal Tap. No word yet on who gets the "dead drummer" slot, but among those who turned up to audition in L.A. were Mick Fleetwood of Fleetwood Mac, Monkees mainstay Mickey Dolenz and former Jane's Addiction member Stephen Perkins. Oh, Gina Shock of the Go-Go's and Debbie Peterson of the Bangles auditioned together, on the same drum kit.

● The funeral benefit for Nashville guitar maker Moses Scrivner is 6-10 p.m. today at 12th & Porter. Starring are Townes Van Zandt, Lee Clayton, Gove Scrivener, Fred Koller, John Prine, Tom Ovans, Billy Ray Reynolds, Bill Dudley, David Schnauer and many more. Admission is $5. Moses died suddenly of heart failure last week at age 45.

● Thieves mainstay Jeff Finlan showcases his new Big Chief band for MCA officials at 328 Performance Hall Wednesday. Brad Jones is angling for a big-time contract that night, too. The public is welcome.

Hudson and members of Highway 101. Best of all, it's free.

● I'm excited about the goings-on at Diamond in the Ruff Tuesday. I absolutely loved those classic albums by the Welsh band the Alarm, so news that its guitarist/writer Dave Sharp is playing there and on Lightning 100 radio that eve is mighty good. Sharp recorded part of his new Hard Travelin' solo album on Music Row with producer Bob Johnston, famed for his Nashville work with Bob Dylan.

● Speaking of Bob Dylan, the full-of-surprises mystery man dropped in unannounced at recording sessions for the Elektra Records rock-folk band the Fishermen on Music Row last week. I hear everyone was stunned, particularly since the new group

● Also fishing for major-label attention this week is Danny Rhodes. He's showcasing Some Nerve for Atlantic talent scouts Friday at the Bluebird Cafe. ■
