Ann Armstrong sings the blues

In Comfort Saturday

"YOU'VE Got A CERTAIN thing you do, and when you do it, you do it well," said Ann Armstrong. "The words and music are just right; you know, when you're in love you're in love."

Armstrong attributes her success to her background in the local blues scene. She started singing in local clubs in the early 1980s and quickly gained a reputation for her powerful vocals and soulful delivery.

"I've always been drawn to the blues because it's so expressive," Armstrong said. "It's a form of music that allows me to express my emotions in a way that's both raw and powerful."

Armstrong has performed at numerous venues throughout the region, including the Kerrville Blues Festival, the Bandera Bluegrass Festival, and the Comal County Fair. She has also released several albums, including "Blues on Tap," which was released in 2010 and received critical acclaim.

On October 3rd, Armstrong will perform at the Comfort Firehouse as part of the Comfort Backyard Blues series. The event is free to the public and is held in the town square behind the Comfort Fire Department.

"I'm really looking forward to playing in Comfort," Armstrong said. "I always enjoy performing in the town square, it's such a great atmosphere.

In addition to her music career, Armstrong is also an avid gardener. She has a large vegetable garden and a small orchard, which she uses to supply her family with fresh produce.

"Music and gardening are both hobbies of mine," Armstrong said. "I find that they both help me stay connected to nature and to the people around me."

Armstrong's next album, "Blues on Tap," is scheduled for release in late 2013, and she is currently working on new material. She encourages fans to follow her on Facebook for updates on her upcoming performances and releases.

"I'm always looking for new opportunities to perform and to connect with my fans," Armstrong said. "I hope that everyone will come out to my show in Comfort and enjoy the music."
