Rain or snow, Farm Aid promises to shine

By PATRICK MURPHY

Farmers will come to town: Fourteen thousand farmers are expected to attend the Farm Aid concert at Great Falls. The event will be held on Tuesday night at the Montana Expo Center. The concert will feature performances by some of the most popular country music artists, including Garth Brooks, Eddie Vedder and John Mellencamp. The goal of the event is to raise awareness and funds for the National Farm Life Support Foundation, which provides support to farmers in need.

We owe ‘two bits’ saying to counterfeiter of coins

By JOHN SMITH

There’s a popular saying that the phrase “two bits” was used by French counterfeiters to describe the size of the counterfeit coins they were making. The saying is thought to have originated in the late 18th century when counterfeiters were trying to make coins that looked like the real thing. The phrase “two bits” referred to the size of the counterfeit coins, which were about two-thirds the size of the real coins.
