

HERE AND COMING... a 7-day calendar of the lively arts

ON STAGE

"Biedermann and the Firebugs" — 8 p.m. Saturday and Sunday at the Shubert Theatre, 3104 Hennepin Ave. "Biedermann and the Firebugs" is a satirical and musical comedy on the slanting of the world's most notorious news evil and injustice until now. The play is by Bertolt Brecht. Director Joseph Walsh has directed the cast of 14 in this funny and entertaining production by the National Theatre Company. — Ann Payne.

"Entertaining Mr. Shaughnessy" — 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday at Park Variety Hall Theatre, 308 Kirby St. St. Paul. After a year of staging lacks a magnetic personality, the cast of this beautiful, musical young American comedy is superb as an aging, sprightly production. Never has it been an entertaining staging than this one. — The Critic.

"The House of Blue Leaves" — 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday at the Lyric Theatre, 308 E. 18th Ave. Paul Austin's staging of this George Gershwin comedy, the 1971 Oscar Award winner, is a joyous, riotously good. Cleo Rocosman, John Cullum and the young cast are exceptionally strong in the three leading roles. The production value is excellent! — Cleo.

"I'm Not Doin' It" — 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday at the Viking Theatre, 1000 University, 10:30 p.m. Saturday, 7 p.m. Sunday. Chisholm Dances Playhouse presents a highly enjoyable two-character musical about 30 years of marriage. It may not be a classic, but there are no signs that the production remains spirited and funny! — Cleo.

"A Taste of Apples" — 2 p.m. Sunday at Children's Theatre Company at Crawford Auditorium, 100 University, 10th St., St. Paul. There is a brief history of the 1960s in Gar Henderson's script. The show is an over-the-top repetitive and frequently predictable musical that fails to live up to the usual standard of a gifted company. — Payne.

"Kabul and His Money Farm" and "Rumbunctious" — 2 p.m. Saturday at Children's Theatre Company at Crawford Auditorium, 100 University, 10th St., St. Paul. "KTC" has come up with an unusual take on the two well-known tales. The double bill is a bright and colorful production for children and pictures, but it should also appeal to the sensibilities of all ages, because it is a very musical presentation of simple fables. — Peter Altman.

"My Fair Lady" — 8:30 p.m. Saturday and 8 p.m. Sunday; 2 p.m. Sunday, 8:30 p.m. Tuesday. Children's Theatre Company at Crawford Auditorium, 100 University, 10th St., St. Paul. "CITC" has come up with an unusual take on the two well-known tales. The double bill is a bright and colorful production for children and pictures, but it should also appeal to the sensibilities of all ages, because it is a very musical presentation of simple fables. — Peter Altman.

"Turle Mousial" — Opening at 8 p.m. Friday, 8:30 p.m. Saturday, 2 p.m. Sunday, 8:30 p.m. Tuesday. The Lakeshore Players' production of Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing" opens a 10-night run Friday at 8:30 p.m. March 17 and Saturday, 2 p.m. March 18 and 25. This will be Lakeshore's first Shakespearean production in its 20-year history.

YOUR AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSION

Your automatic transmission is a wonderful convenience. Think of the thousands of times your car shifts each year!

But, like all fine machinery, your transmission needs periodic maintenance to keep it operating smoothly. Such as an adjustment or cleaning for $2.00. And it's not expensive—only $16.95 at Hansond—complete with fluid.

Sometime your automatic transmission may start shifting irregularly, and you will have a big repair bill. That's when you must consult professionals—men who know what they are doing! Men like Don Bowers.

Don has serviced Hansond's automatic transmission department for 26 years. He taught for many years at local vocational schools as a real pro. Having overhauled thousands of transmissions through the years, Don can spot the source of your transmission trouble in a moment with a few simple tests.

Don makes certain Hansond has a constant supply of popular rebuilt American automatic transmission units at all times. All have been rebuilt under Don Bowers' strict supervision to carry a 100% guarantee of satisfaction. And these units installed in your car is only $169 (plus fluid), with one day service available.

Hansond has many wholesale transmission accounts throughout the states. Rebuilt transmissions are shipped daily to other car dealers and independent garages all over the area. And, they have been far more than 20 years.

If you have any transmission problems, better consult Don Bowers of Hansond's—in the heart of downtown Minneapolis at Hennepin and University. You may call him at 332-1133. He and his crew will be happy to give you a free diagnosis. And, their work is 100% guaranteed.
