SR students get degrees

Two Santa Rosa students are among graduates from the University of Portland in Oregon and George Fox College in Newberg, Ore.

Susan Marie Ebert, Penngrove, received a bachelor of science degree in nursing from the University of Portland.

She was a 1975 graduate of Rancho Colate High School in Robert Park.

Timothy Arthur Small, Santa Rosa, is receiving a bachelor of arts degree as a Christian ministries major from George Fox College. He is a Finer High graduate.

Seniors festival planned

PETALUMA — A festival for senior citizens will be at the Kenilworth Recreation Center from 1-4 p.m. Saturday, June 10.

All seniors, friends and relatives are invited for an afternoon of music, dancing, and magic with an exhibit of arts and crafts created by seniors involved with the department.

Those wishing to display their craft work may phone Bill Lutz, chairman, 762-8902.

This is the second annual senior day sponsored by Petaluma Seniors involved with the cooperation of the Golden Age, AARP, Give-A-Hoot & H Club, and the city parks and recreation department.

Professor to discuss news study

Dr. Carl Jensen, associate professor of sociology will discuss "The Ten Best Censored Stories of 1977" at an 11 a.m. brunch meeting of the Sonoma State College President's Associates Tuesday in the new campus art gallery.

The project is an annual research effort conducted by Dr. Jensen and his students which has had national publicity.

Policeman promoted

PETALUMA — Police Officer John Turner has been promoted to sergeant according to Chief Robert B. Murphy.

Turner has been with the department eight years as of July 15.

He took a series of oral and written examinations in the promotion process.

Two Rock barn sale

PETALUMA — The Two Rock Volunteer Fire Department will have a barn sale and flea market from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. June 28 at the fire station on Bodega Highway at Two Rock.

Proceeds will purchase equipment for the department.

Anyone wishing to donate saleable items may phone 762-4619, 762-4418, or 762-1192. A volunteer fireman will do the pickup if asked.

Many antiques will be in the sale. The auction also will include services such as backhoe work, a load of gravel and the like.

Prizes will be given children selling the most items.

Petaluma swimming scheduled

PETALUMA — The swim center will be open the Memorial Day weekend, according to the city parks department.

Hours Sunday will be from 8 a.m. to noon, and on Saturday during regular swim hours starting June 9.

Registration is for only one session at a time. No mail-in or walk-in registrations are accepted at the recreation department office.

A non-resident fee of $1.50 is charged those who live outside the city.

For information phone 762-2613, Ext. 70.
