

Townes back in town

Townes Van Zandt has been out roaming the highways and byways of America lately, enlightening the provinces and gathering new experiences. He's been one of Texas' best songwriters for almost two decades, turning out a variety of finely crafted tunes that have made other singers rich. Townes, however, knows the ins and outs of his songs best, and on a good night he can make you forget Willie, Waylon, and the others. At 10 p.m. Saturday at Soap Creek. $4 cover.
