courses. All courses are taught in English. Contact: Academic Programs Department, Council on International Educational Exchange, 205 East 42nd St., New York, NY 10017; (212) 661-1414, ext. 1186.

1. Fordham College is now soliciting applications from juniors in Fordham College for the Leahey and Tobin Travel Fellowships. These awards, of about $1,000, must be used for travel during the summer of 1990. Students who wish to apply should pick up an application sheet in Keating 201 and return it by March 15, 1990. The winners will be chosen on the basis of their imaginative travel plans, service to the College, and academic record. The awards are made from funds donated in loving memory of Edward B. Leahey, Jr. (FCO '69) and Mark Tobin (FCO '89).

2. Invitations to Phi Kappa Phi, a National Honor Society recognizing excellence in academic achievement, have recently been sent out to eligible candidates. This organization is also accepting applications for the annual Phi Kappa Phi Fellowship Competition which entails a possible $7000 stipend for the applicant's first year of graduate study. Interested students should contact Professor Timothy Withers, Department of Economics (Dealy 521, Ext. 2221) as soon as possible.

3. St. Barnabas Hospital, located at 183rd St. and Third Ave., invites volunteers to help with several hospital services including nursing units, admitting office, social services, emergency room, gift shop, and clerical offices. Schedule is flexible. Call Pat Sands, (212) 960-6267.

4. Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA) accepts college graduates for full-time service at local, non-profit organizations for one year. The service includes work with such issues as alcohol and drug abuse, homelessness, hunger, child and spouse abuse and illiteracy. Contact an ACTION State Program Office or call: 1-800-424-8867.

5. The Council on International Educational Exchange offers two new programs of study in Hungary and Poland. The East European Studies Programs offers courses in East European history, economics, culture, and political science, as well as Polish and Hungarian language

6. The Academy of American Poets is awarding University and College Prizes of $100. Prizes are available to undergraduates who submit the best single poem. The Alumni Prize is awarded to the best alumni term paper of about 5,000 words. There is no restriction of subject. The Charles J. Donahue Prize is for any undergraduate or recent graduate who submits the
