

Country legend heads star-studded Adelphi billing

SCENE SETTERS

THREE top acts play Hull University this week in the space of four days, and tickets are available for all of them.

Sheffield indie popsters Pulp (£6.50) play the Cottingham Road venue on Thursday, while Saturday sees the arrival of hip-hop act Credit to the Nation (£5.50).

On Sunday indie artists turned glam rockers Cud (£7.50) put in an appearance.

Tickets are available from Off Beat, Our Price, Sidney Scarboroughs, Hull City Hall, Hull University or the credit card hotline on (0472) 466264.

Tomorrow country and western legend Townes Van Zandt rolls into town to play the Adelphi.

Such is the man's reputation that Adelphi owner Paul Jackson put up his second highest ever advance to secure this Hull date.

Townes, who hails from Texas, has become something of a 'God' in country circles after playing countless worldwide venues during the last decade.

TOWNES VAN ZANDT

Highly rated local country act M.G. Greaves and the Lonesome Too support. Tickets are £4.50 (members) and £5.50 (guests).

At the venue on Friday are rising indie act Oasis, whose first single Supersonic recently soared into the charts.

Tipped for major success, the Mancunians arrive at the Adelphi as part of a national tour.